

Handling refrigerants safely

climalife®

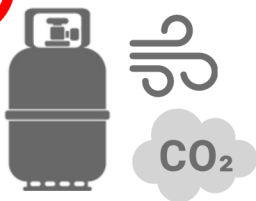

Always fasten cylinders securely or use cage when transporting

Always consult the MSDS and hold appropriate refrigerant training certification

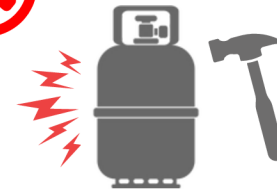

Avoid burns, correct PPE must be worn at all times

Prevent pollution - ensure valves are completely closed

Keep away from heat sources to prevent explosions or safety valve damage

Avoid impact on any cylinders and always handle with care to avoid irreversible damage